

[Organizational Structure]

General meeting

Composed of all members. *Resolution of change of the articles of incorporation and operational rules, budgets and accounts, and appointment and removal of officers

Secretariat

- General Affairs Dept. Member liaison, general coordination of rules, design and operation of mutual assistance for disaster recovery costs, disaster prevention, and supervision of all administrative work in the office
- Accounting Office Accounting (budget/settlement), funds (cash management, treasurer, tax affairs), and materials
- Information System Office Information system, information security measures, and operation of switching support system
- General Planning Dept. Institutional design of capacity market and balancing market, study on balancing capacity, study on the state of supply reliability, and study on the Grid Code
- Power Supply-and-Demand Planning Dept. Demand estimates, supply-demand balance assessment, compilation of supply plans (except matters under the jurisdiction of the Network Planning Dept.), and design and operation management of power supply auction
 - Capacity Market Operation Center Operation management of capacity market (auction, assessment, and request and grant related services)
- Power System Planning Dept. Formation of distribution facility formation plans, compilation of supply plans (matters related to distribution facility development planning), and acceptance of connection studies for power generation facilities of 10,000 kW or more
- Network Operation Dept. Compilation of supply and demand, response in the event of supply-demand constraints, management of interconnection lines, work stoppage plan coordination, and cross-regional frequency adjustment
 - Cross-Regional Operation Center Monitoring and management of supply-demand and power system condition
- Renewable Energy and International Affairs Dept. General operations performed by OCCTO under the provisions of the Renewable Energy Electricity Special Measures Act, and supervision of international relations operations such as overseas surveys
- Policy Development Office General coordination of the operations of OCCTO and planning and formulation of basic policy
- Dispute Resolution Office Response to complaints and consultations, and mediation/arbitration
- Audit Office Auditing in general

(Major operations)

*All electric utility companies are obliged to become members of OCCTO.

Responsibilities of OCCTO members

- Exercise their voting rights at general meeting, ● Compliance with rules, such as following instructions and requests from OCCTO, ● Payment of membership fee, ● Submission of supply plan, ● Emergency disaster preparedness